Evaluating Website Information

Participants will analyze the accuracy and credibility of an informational website using a student-friendly graphic organizer. Teachers will be able to demonstrate to students how to look for perspective and bias on a website in order to find misleading data.

This Flex Short will help educators tackle the WI Information Technology Literacy standard of Knowledge Constructor KC1.b

Click Here for more resources!

Notes:

CESA2

To access the folder with more shorts, click here.
To contact, please email: frank.devereaux@cesa2.org.